The University-wide Graduate School was established in the Autumn of 2011. In celebration of our 5th Anniversary, we are delighted to announce ten PhD studentships available for October 2017 start. These are available for highly qualified applicants for research within science, life sciences and arts, humanities and social science.

Ten studentships, each one offering:

- a subsistence grant (stipend) of £10,000 per annum
- tuition fees at the Home/EU rate*
- a £1,000 per annum training and development allowance

Awards are for up to three years in duration.

*International fee-payers can be considered for these awards but will need to be prepared to fund the difference between the Home/EU and International fee rates themselves. For more information on the amounts, please see our fees page.

Research themes

Applicants to these scholarships will need to ensure that their proposed research fits within one or more of the University's research themes. This is one of the criteria (see below) for these awards.

- Environment

- Heritage & Creativity

Please note that these themes are intended to be broadly interpreted across subject areas.

Results

We regret that, due to the very high volume of applications, we cannot undertake to contact all unsuccessful candidates; if you have not received a formal studentship funding offer by the end of April 2017, this will indicate that you have not been successful in this competition.
