MSc in Law and Finance Partial Scholarships, Queen Mary University of London, UK

<https://beasiswaindo.com/scholarships/msc-in-law-and-finance-partial-scholarships-queen-mary-university-of-london-uk/>

The School of Economics and Finance and the Centre for Commercial Law Studies (CCLS) are offering two partial scholarships worth one third of the tuition fee each to outstanding full time candidates.

What does the scholarship cover? How are they paid?

The partial scholarship covers one third of the tuition fee only in the form of a fee waiver; the partial scholarships do not cover additional course costs (books etc...) or accommodation fees. Partial scholarships are NOT payable directly to successful applicants but are off set against your student fee invoice. The partial scholarship is awarded on the basis of academic merit, the submitted statement in response to the set question as detailed in the application, and in some cases, financial need and professional/extracurricular achievements.

Closing Dates and Important Notes

You must have an offer of study for the MSc Law and Finance before you apply for the partial scholarship.

Apply early for the MSc Law and Finance Programme

Apply for the MSc Law and Finance programme as early as possible and no later than 13 February 2017. Students who have not submitted their complete MSc Law and Finance programme application by this date will not be considered for funding. If you have missing documents in your programme application it may not be considered in time for partial scholarship consideration. It is acceptable to apply if you have not yet taken your English language test or do not have your final academic grades.

Funding deadline

The deadline for submission of the partial scholarships application is 13 March 2017 by 16.00 GMT – students must have an offer of study (either conditional or unconditional) for the MSc Law and Finance programme before applying for the partial scholarship.

Any student who has applied for the programme by 13 February 2017 and has not received an offer of study by 6 March 2017, should contact ccls-joint-programmes-admin@qmul.ac.uk (NOT the admissions team) and quote the date of application and their application number in order for us to look into this.

Please note that scholarships cannot be deferred.

What are scholarship winners required to do?

If you are awarded a partial scholarship you may be asked to assist the Law Marketing Team with marketing activities such as the postgraduate law open evenings and student profiles and videos.

Please note scholarships are also subject to university-wide Terms and Conditions as well as any course/School/Faculty conditions or criteria outline.

How to apply for the MSc Law and Finance Partial Scholarships

You must have a full time offer of study in place before you can apply for MSc Law and Finance partial scholarship. You will be required to apply for the partial scholarship via our online application link: MSc Law and Finance Partial Scholarship Application Form. Please ensure you complete ALL relevant sections correctly:

- 1000 word (maximum) statement in response to the following: Please explain why you want to study for an MSc Law and Finance at Queen Mary University of London, what you will bring to the programme and why you feel you should be awarded a scholarship; focusing on your academic and professional achievements (if relevant) and financial need.

- Upon submission of your partial scholarship application you will be re-directed to a page which will state 'Your response has been recorded'. There is no need to contact us to request further confirmation so please do not do so.
- You will be notified of the outcome of your scholarship application by the end of May 2017. Please wait to be contacted in this regard.

Incomplete, incorrect or late scholarship applications will NOT be accepted or processed.

Eligibility

The MSc Law and Finance partial scholarships are open to applicants who have an offer of study on the full-time programme only and are not open to those with an offer on the part-time programme.

If you have applied for funding elsewhere and are successful in receiving such funding you must inform us immediately.

Criteria

The scholarship will be awarded to those who we deem to have successfully demonstrated their reasoning for being awarded a scholarship based on the following criteria;

- Academic merit
- Professional achievements (if any)
- Financial need

The compulsory statement should include all of the above information and should be in response to the text as detailed in the 'How to apply' section above.
